Affairs at the National Capital—An Investigation.

CONKLING TO BE AN ASSOCIATE JUSTICE.

Sargent Will be Sent to Germany—Texas Republicans—San Francisco Items—Other News.

Associated Press Dispatches.]

WASHINGTON, February 24.—In the House Belmont offered a resolution directing the Committee on Foreign Affairs to inquire into and report to the House, respecting the abstraction from the files of the State Department certain letters and documents referred to in the letter of the Secretary of State, Feb. 17th. Also respecting the making of any contract in Paris or elsewhere, by and between any foreign corporation or company and an American citizen. Also concerning any concessions made by Peru to any French or foreign company, wherein allusion was made to the diplomatic action of the United States. Kasson offered a substitute in the following resolution:

Whereas, It is alleged in connection with the Chili-Peruvian correspondence recently and officially published on the call of the two Houses of Congress, that one or more Ministers Plenipotentiary of the United States were either personally interested or improperly connected with the business transactions by which the intervention of this Government was requested or expected; and whereas, it is alleged that certain papers in relation to the same subject have been improperly lost or removed from the file of the State Department, therefore be it resolved, that the Committee on Foreign Affairs be instructed to inquire into said allegations and ascertain any facts relating thereto that may be deemed proper. Belmont accepted the substitute and it was adopted without objection.

MELVILLE CONFIDENT.

Secretary Hunt has received a cable from Hoffman at St. Petersburg, as follows: "Your order of January 15th have reached Melville. He answers as follows: 'On the Road to the Arctic Ocean, Jan. 31st—The telegram of Jan. 16th is just received. Am now on my way to the Arctic Ocean. The people will be found.'"

SEAT DECLARED VACANT.

The House Committee on Elections have decided to report in the case of Campbell agasnst Cannon of Utah, that neither contestant nor contestee is entitled to a seat and have declared the same vacant.

TRYING TO MAKE ANOTHER CRANK.

In the Mason Court Martial the Court has ordered a subpœna issued for J. C. Robinson, late Major of the Seventh Ohio Volunteers. It is the intention to show by this witness that Mason served with this regiment bravely and faithfully and was severely wounded, after which there was a marked change in his temperament and disposition.

CONKLING ON TOP.

The President has nominated Sargent to be Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to Germany, and Conkling as Associate Justice of the Supreme Court.

A SURPRISE ALL AROUND.

The nomination of Conkling created quite a stir in the Senate as it was entirely unexpected, and Senators freely expressed their surprise. The indications are that he will be confirmed unanimously. Sargent's nomination surprised some of his friends, who maintained till the last that he would be Secretary of the Interior. Kirkwood's friends have been working industriously in his behalf of late, though he has not made a single movement for himself. There is talk of the probability of Conkling's declination, as it is said he was not communicated with on the subject. It is believed that if he declines Senator Edmunds will be appointed. The nomination of Sargent is regarded as settling the fact that Kirkwood remains at the head of the Interior Department.

RELIEVING THE SOUTHERN SUFFERERS.

The Senate resolution by George, to provide for the relief of the sufferers by the overflow of the Mississippi, was adopted. The House later passed a measure which appropriates $100,000 for their relief.

THE MASON TRIAL.

At the Mason trial nothing material was elicited. The prisoner complains bitterly of his treatment in confinement.

A SQUABBLE IN THE SENATE.

Immediately following the Grant retirement bill in the Senate to-day, a few minutes were by common consent devoted to the passing of a measure for the relief of sufferers by the Southern floods, and General Miller and a dozen Senators sprang to their feet and simultaneously claimed the recognition of the Chair. McPherson, of New Jersey, was given the floor and submitted a motion to consider a bill to recognize the Marine Corps. A confused struggle ensued on the part of five or six of his competitors to gain the ear of the Senate in behalf of other propositions. Bayard gave notice that if the McPherson bill gave rise to much debate he would press the Tariff Commission bill to displace it. Cameron moved to go into executive session and Miller insisted that the Senate ought to take up the Chinese bill. It was thus made evident that it was useless to determine the question temporarily this afternoon. The contest was postponed by Cameron's consent, and the Senate, after holding a brief executive session, adjourned, with the understanding that the struggle for priority will be renewed as soon as the Deficiency bill shall have been disposed of. This is expected to occur about three o'clock to-morrow afternoon.

REPUBLICAN MASS CONVENTION.

In Favor of an Independent Movement for all Offices.

FORT WORTH, Texas, Feb. 24.—The much-talked-of mass convention of Texas Republicans met in this city yesterday and adjourned till to-day. The object was to get an expression from the leading men of the party as to the best course to pursue against the Democracy. No Republicans of national reputation outside of the State were in attendance, but there was a large gathering of the State celebrities. It was the sense of the meeting, as the Republican party is in a

HOPELESS MINORITY

In Texas, that if some man of progressive principles is found to lead the opposition to Bourbonism the Republicans of Texas should give him all possible aid. The sentiment was strongly in favor of supporting an independent movement for Congress and legislative and local offices. The regular committees were retained to keep up the party organization. Everything was harmonious till the

WOMAN SUFFRAGE

Resolutions were adopted, and then a small faction split away and organized by themselves as opposed to this idea. It is thought that immediate steps through correspondence will be taken for an anti-Bourbon convention to be held at Austin in July or August. An effort is to be made to induce ex-Governor Throckmorton to head the ticket.

SAN FRANCISCO BUDGET.

Celebrating the Call Sales by a Supper at the Lick House.

SAN FRANCISCO, Februaty 24.—The Produce Exchange has completed its arrangements for call sales, which will begin on Monday morning. A graded list of articles of produce is prepared. All the prominent shippers have evidenced a willingness to participate by naming one member of their respective firms to represent their seat. The millers have done likewise. The new departure will be signalized by a supper at the Lick House on Monday night. The membership of two hundred is full. The seats were sold a few days ago for $1,300, being $300 premium. The Merchant's Exchange call sales have been suspended, and the project may be considered dead.

PUSHING THE CHINA BILL.

At a meeting of the Republican County Committee, held yesterday afternoon, it was resolved that the Chairman and Executive Committee invite the co operation of the Democratic County Committee, Chamber of Commerce and Board of Trade for the purpose of calling immediately a mass meeting of the electors of San Francisco to give expression to the desire for the immediate passage of the anti-Chinese bill now before Congress.

CRIMES AND CASUALTIES.

Chas. W. Stickney, on Trial for Murder, Acquitted by Jury.

Associated Press Dispatches.]

DENVER, Feb. 24.—In the trial of Chas. W. Stickney, for the murder of M. T. Campau, which attracted wide interest, the jury to-day returned a verdict of not guilty on account of insanity. Stickney killed Canpau in a boarding house last May because of criminal intimacy with Mrs. Stickney. The trial lasted eighteen days. A number of prominent insanity experts and others from the East testified for the defence. Both Stickney and Campau were well known, the latter having been a real estate dealer. Stickney is well known in Chicago.

She said to a lady before she died that eight couples attended a surprise party and the eight young ladies were all seduced at the same time and place.

Almost a Farce.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 24.—A man known as Wood Hite, who was arrested in Logan, Ky., on Feb. 11th for complicity in the robbery of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railroad train at Winston, Mo., on the night of January 15th, last year, was arraigned in the Court at Gallatin, Davies county, on Wednesday, pleaded guilty and was sentenced to the penitentiary for two(?) years. He is first cousin to the notorious bandit Jesse James. He said he fired eleven shots at the locomotives on the night the train was robbed and chased the engineer out on the pilot, but would not give any information respecting the rest of the gang. Hite has lived in Logan county, Kentucky, for several years, and it is believed that others concerned in the robbery reside in that or the adjoining counties.

NEW YORK, Feb. 24.—The Times' Indianapolis correspondent says: Tilden recently wrote John M. Palmer offering to stand as the Democratic candidate for President if Palmer would take the second place.

AFTER APPROPRIATIONS.

What Different Cities Want for Public Buildings.

[Washington Cor. Pittsburg Post.]

"This Committee will pursue a very liberal policy this winter," remarked a member of the House Committee on Public Buildings and Grounds the other day to a Southern Congressman, who is pressing a bill for a Government building in a town of 10,000 inhabitants, and demanding a $150,000 appropriation. Somehow or other, Congressmen generally have become impressed with the idea that all they have to do in order to get building appropriations for their districts is to introduce a bill. There have thus far been offered and referred, about eighty bills to authorize new buildings and calling for an aggregate of about $12,000,000 for their completion. Should the erection of these Custom Houses and Post Offices be authorized, they would not probably be completed short of an expenditure of $25,000,000. This is exclusive of public works, such as the Pittsburgh Post Office, that are now under contract.

The following is the list of the bills, with the amount of each appropriation asked for:

LOS ANGELES DAILY TIMES.

THE LOS ANGELES DAILY TIMES will be sold on all the trains of the Southern and Central Pacific Railroads; also on the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe and Texas & Pacific road.

The TIMES can also be found at the newsstands of the Palace and Occidental Hotels and Russ House, San Francisco.

THE TIMES office is connected with the telephone system of this city, and those desiring to advertise in or subscribe for this paper can do so by this means.

TWO CONGRESSMEN AT LARGE.

The Apportionment Bill having passed the House which gives to California six representatives in the National Legislature, and there being little doubt that it will also pass the Senate, the Congressional pot is already simmering. The two members thus added to the representation are not provided with districts, and as the State Legislature will not be in session before the next election is held, they will be elected by the State at large, and this fact will add very much to the interest and importance of the coming campaign. The State being so nearly equally divided as respects politics each of the parties will make an effort to put up their strongest men for these positions, and it is quite likely that they will be apportioned to the upper and lower portions of the State the dividing line being San Francisco. Already there are announcements of candidates being made, among them Henry Edgerton, of of Sacramento, Senator Baker of Santa Clara, W. W. Morrow of San Francisco and others, from the Republican ranks. We have as yet heard of no one specially presenting their claims for the position from this section, but they will not be wanting as time develops.

THE PEOPLE.

Spread all over the history of the past twenty years is the living fact that the Republican party in its individual membership and in its organized capacity is the friend and defender of the masses of the people. The abolition of slavery was its work; the homestead laws always received its support; educational matters ever enlisted its best efforts, and the beneficent postal laws and regulations that have been so great a boon to the masses have been brought to perfection during the two remarkable decades in which the Republican party has been in power. And the fact that the party still stands strong in the hearts of the people is the natural result of this good work for their benefit. It is a pleasant fact to look upon, and it is full of encouragement to the man who feels in his heart that he should champion the cause of the poor masses. He has but to be honest in his advocacy of their rights, and clean of hands personally to insure the reward due the good and faithful servants.

WATER RECEIPTS.

The Water Company acknowledges the receipt of $46,000 from sales of water last year, but the number of takers is not given. The antagonists of high water rates claim that the Company purposely omits the number of customers from its business showing. The company can easily silence this charge by giving the number and rate of payment of takers. The refusal to do so is liable to beget the belief that the facts are purposely withheld.

A SAN JOSE newspaper interviewer must be a regular exhanst-pipe. At least we have the authority of Mr. Richard Fellows, the skillful stage-stopper, for our inferrence. When Mr. Fellows, escorted by a detective, reached San Francisco last Monday, en route to Santa Barbara, "the zenith city of the salted sea," (as Hank Wagoner describes it,) he "begged to be released from the infliction of an interview, stating that the San Jose journalists had been at him all day, and that he was nearly exhausted." Now wouldn't it be a happy device to set a S-J-j. on the gentlemanly stage-robber for a steady job, until the exhausting process be finished?

REV. MR. SCHOFIELD, of Stockton, has resigned the pastorate of the Presbyterian Church in that place because he didn't have room to work in. The Reverend gentleman could find a plenty of work, we imagine, if he would tackle the newspaper men. They need some attention, judging from the manner in which they are spitting fire at each other.

THE Tucson folks are agitating the qestion of the formation of a Board of Trade. It is a good thing to have, neighbors, if you wish to build up your community. Do you observe how Los Angeles is prospering? It is all because we have a Chamber of Commerce.

THE San Francisco Chronicle and New York Times will now claim it was their little hatchets that cut down the tree of Sargent's hope. He goes to Germany as Envoy Extraordinary instead of into the Cabinet.

CONKLING has been appointed to the bench of the Supreme Court by President Arthur. The power behind the throne is asserting itself.

THE EXCURSIONISTS.

Some Notes of the Trip—How They Enjoyed Themselves, Etc., Etc.

A gentleman who came through to Los Angeles yesterday on the American Colony excursion has given us some interesting statements relative to the trip across the plains and mountains, as well as some information upon the purposes of these visitors. The party consisted of some sixty persons, mainly from the Central States. They were given exclusive occupancy of two new emigrant sleeping cars, which were attached to the regular emigrant train. The trip was in every respect a delightful and interesting one, as stops of from one to three hours were made at all the important cities en route. Thus ample time was given to thoroughly explore, Trinidad, Raton, Deming, Tucson and Yuma. The very deliberate progress made also enabled the excursionists to see all that was interesting in the country passed through in daylight. These people had their own provisions and an ample supply of bedding; coffee and tea were served at each meal, and the days were passed pleasantly in forming acquaintances and friendships that in many instances will doubtless last for years. On several evenings impromptu and most interesting entertainments were given in one of the cars. These entertainments consisted of songs, choruses, readings, personal reminiscences and short addresses. On Sabbath there were regular services morning and evening—prayers, singing and preaching.

The company unanimously passed a series of resolutions highly complimentary to Mr. W. E. Willmore for his excellent management of the excursion that resulted in so much pleasure to the participants. We are informed that it was generally conceded that the emigrant train affords the most restful and interesting trip from the States to California, if time is not a too important consideration.

Two families of this party have already located in Los Angeles. Quite a number expect to locate in the new and promising American Colony. A large number of these ladies and gentlemen were interviewed yesterday. They express themselves as delighted (some of them enraptured) with Los Angeles.

The result of this excursion will immediately result in a considerable and very desirable accession to Los Angeles and vicinity, with a fair promise of larger accessions of worthy citizens in the near future. These people are tendered a cordial welcome.

Mr. Willmore is entitled to much credit for the valuable service thus rendered Southern California and to these strangers brought hither..

NORWALK.

The Measles—The Signal Man's Wonderful Discovery.

The last rain has started the young grass, so we will soon have plenty of feed.

A young man by the name of Fred. Bremont died last Monday morning. The measels still prevail. Mr. J. C. Crawford and four of his children are in bed with them.

Mr. Ben. F. Tarwater, of the Downey Signal, paid this section a flying visit, in the interest of his paper last week. Ben is not as good a talker as "Cambro" but he is decidedly better looking; in fact he is the best looking man in the county; besides he is a bachelor so the young ladies think his paper is "so nice" and the widows all go for it. Ben is a very good doctor. He has made one of the greatest medical discoveries of the age. I read it last week in the Signal. I will give it from memory for the benefit of your readers. It is "how to make the hair grow on bald places." You take an egg and beat it on the head until the scalp becomes soft; then you rub in a little borax, then more borax, finally you put more borax in a dish or pan, then wash the head thoroughly, letting the water run into the pan in which you have the borax. The effect will be magical. I saw the editor three weeks ago and his head looked as hard and bare as an eggshell; or to be more poetical, it reminded me of the everlasting snow clad peak of old Mount Baldy.

GREETING.

[The following poem by Miss Marcella Fitzgerald of Gilroy was read, creating much enthusiasm, before the audience at the O'Connor meeting Wednesday evening, Feb. 15, 1882.]

With bared brow bent and suppliant voice we say,
How long, O Lord? how long
Will Erin's woes and bitter sufferings be
The burden of our song?

Year after year the echoes hear the wail
Of agony that swells
From aching hearts along her lonely moors
And 'mid her fertile dells.

Where her poor peasants toil from morn till eve,
Half housed, half clothed, half fed,
For the scant pittance which their lords allow—
Starvation's daily bread.

Is there no ending to her night of woe?
When will the fettering chain
Be stricken from the land we love so well,
And she be crowned again?

Crowned with the laurels Freedom loves to give
Her purest, noblest, best;
Crowned Queen of Beauty, Valor, Joy and Love,
Fair Island of the West.

Dear Isle, for which our patriot father's fell,
Lo! vale and mountain side
Are watered by the heart's blood of her best,
Poured out in crimson tide,

And nurtured by that great and wondrous flood,
Our love for her has grown;
And through long centuries of bale and blight
True Irish hearts have known

No loftier aim than for her holy cause,
To work, and watch, and pray;
A glorious army of undaunted men,
Heroes and saints are they.

And humble followers in the path they trod,
For sake of mother-land,
Lo! round about her now in filial love,
A mighty concourse stand.

But fling no martial banner to the breeze,
They chant no battle song;
The wage a warfare to the bitter end,
Honor and Right 'gainst Wrong.

O! loyal hearts, leagued in our common cause
In close fraternal ties,
Does the Aurora of the morn of Hope
Shine in the eastern skies?

If the day breaking which we long to see?
Oh! haste the happy hour
When Peace and Plenty, with their smiling train,
Will be old Ireland's dower.

On for her rights, though clouds lower darkly 'round,
And rugged grows the path;
For Faith and Kindred and for native land,
Dare! Dare the tempter's wrath.

Unto the cruel tyrants and their hordes
Leave outrage, rapine, wrong;
No stain of guilt upon our honored cause
Can make that cause more strong.

And pledging to our country evermore
Each soul devoid of fear;
With Irish lips, from Irish hearts we bid
Her true son: "Welcome here!

From this green Isle that gave our parents birth,
That loved and sacred shore,
The hundred thousand welcomes of our race
We give thee o'er and o'er.

And know, though far, so far away we roam,
We own one mother's will;
And bear this message to her o'er the sea;
Our hearts are Ireland's still!"

LOS ANGELES DAILY TIMES.

ABOUT TOWN

The Thirty-Eights fire boys were out for parade last night.

The Eagle Corps turned out last evening on a short parade.

Last year Bostonians ran wild over dog-carts, but this year they see (H)os-car-wild.

Old Prob. fooled us that time. It didn't rain, and what is more, it doesn't look as though it was going to.

Dr. Walter Lindley's card appears in "New To-Day." The Doctor's ability is well known and needs no further comment.

Arizona papers report that Hon. R. F. Del Valle and Joseph D. Lynch are interested in rich mines near Prescott. More bloated monopolists,—in the sweet bye and bye.

Dona Catalina Batz, mother of the Batz brothers, owners of the Rosa de Castillos sheep ranch, was buried yesterday afternoon. The funeral procession was an unusually large one.

The funeral of the infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Domingo Amestoy will take place to-day at 10 o'clock A. M. from the residence of Mr. P. Ballade, corner of Aliso and Alameda streets.

Cupid's darts continue to penetrate promiscuously and abundantly. The latest victims are a dashing grocery clerk of this city and a fair San Bernardino damsel. It never rains but it pours.

Eames and Levering have just received the finest stock of evergreens and orange trees ever seen in this vicinity. Their stock of fruit trees, shade trees, cypress, etc., is always complete and reliable.

A subscription list has been started for the benefit of the unfortunate carpenter J. M. D. Reese who was seriously injured by falling from a roof last week. His family are dependent on his labor for sustenance, hence it is to be hoped that the appeal will be liberally responded to.

An idea of the magnitude of the business of some of the business houses of this city may be formed from the fact that it will require thirty cars to carry this years orders of one house from the East to this State. The house is that of S. W. Luitwieler, agent for the Studebaker and Cortland wagons.

This is from the Sun, published in the city of Bayonclimate. It must be a libel. San Diego wouldn't stand any such nonsense from the weather clerk: "There was quite a hurricane yesterday about noon, and it rained and hailed in a fearful manner. Signs were blown down, and the small boys collected quite a lot of snow balls.

Considerable excitement was caused by the report of a pistol, as was supposed, in front of the TIMES office last night about half past eight o'clock. The report seemed to come from a street car which was passing, and on investigating Officer Sands discovered a railroad signal torpedo which some joker had fixed upon the track and which was exploded by the passing car.

By reference to our "New To-Day" it will be seen that Thomas Stovell, of the Spring Street planing mill, has a first-class carpenter shop in connection with the establishment. Store and office fitting is made a specialty and he employs the best men to be obtained for that work. Moulding and scroll work are kept constantly on hand; also, estimates for mill work furnished any time.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Elder J. W. Webb, Grand Lecturer of the I. O. G. T., has just returned from a successful trip to El Monte, Spadra and Pomona. He reports that the plows are still going, the recent rains having instilled fresh courage into the hearts of the farmers. The warmer weather following the rains has started the feed in good shape and sheep men are correspondingly happy. Barley and wheat have also made a good start in those districts. At El Monte the I. O. G. T. and Christian Church have jointly purchased the old school house building and are preparing to remove it to the village, when it will be repaired and made a suitable meeting house for both societies.

W. T. Davidson, editor of the Lewiston, Ill., Democrat, was one of the arrivals yesterday. He runs one of the cleanest and most successful newspapers of that State, notwithstanding he is a Democrat. And his wife is as good a man as he, evidently, as she is in charge of the paper during his absence.

Geo. D. Hodges, mine host of the Colton Hotel, reports that H. De Garmo & Co. will shortly erect an elegant brick hotel and livery stable in the place of the buildings recently burned. It will have fifty rooms and will be the best building in San Bernardino county.

W. P Goldman, brother of I. S. Goldman, the watchmaker and jeweler, who arrived from Kansas City, last Saturday, has already purchased a cozy little home on the corner of Lazard and Vignes street.

J. F. Sherwood of Westminster, made a pleasant call last evening. He reports a rainfall of three quarters of an inch last Sunday at that place, the heaviest of the season.

Capt. J. A. Gray and family, of Lewiston, Ill., who accompanied the American excursionists, went down to Santa Ana last evening, where he has relatives residing.

H. S. Knapp and wife, of Silverado, are registered at the Pico House. Mr. Knapp is the Nestor of the mining interests of that place. He will remain here a few days.

J. S. Thompson of Chicago, the attorney for the Western Union Telegraph Company, is at the Pico House. He is paying Los Angeles a visit on business and pleasure.

The great railroad contractor, A. B. Cook, of Chicago, well known all over the United States among railroad men, is in the city stopping at the Pico House.

E. A. Hartwell, an extensive manufacturer of sashes, blinds, etc., in Chicago, is in town on a pleasure trip. He is stopping at the Pico House.

Miss Laura M. Trask, well known to the people of this city, was married to Frank E. Blacklidge, at Benson, Arizona, on Washington's Birthday.

Hon. S. C. Knickerbocker, Probate Judge of Chicago, is a guest of the Pico House. He is on a tour of inspection to the Pacific Coast.

Mr. F. G. King and family, of Denver, are visiting with Dr. Sinsabaugh of this city. He has purchased property in Riverside.

Mr. Burchard, a gentleman lately from Denver, expresses himself as well pleased with Los Angeles' climate and prospects.

Mrs. Kent, wife of the Superintendent of the Normal School building arrived yesterday from San Jose.

C. R. Strong, a prominent merchant of St. Paul, Minn., arrived over the Southern route last evening.

S. F. Sopris, manager for the extensive grocery house of Brown Brothers, Denver, is in this city.

Mrs. Lewllyn Bixby is quite ill at her home on the hill.

IN DOORS AND OUT.

The Regular Weekly Sporting News at Home and Abroad.

The Last Three Days Hunt by the Sportsmen's Club—A Big Haul—Another Hunt to Come.

The sporting men of this place have pricked up their ears and are looking for game in all quarters. Last Saturday the fun began, and from the looks of things will be kept up until warm weather sets in. About thirteen of the members of the Los Angeles club started out for the Ballona and had a great time before they returned on Monday. The main feature of the hunt was dividing the crowd into two companies with a captain over each, and an umpire. Each company or leader then started out to see which side would get away with

THE MOST GAME

In the two days' hunt. R. A. Ling acted as captain of one team and Dan Foley as captain of the other. When the game was counted up on Monday afternoon it turned out that Ling's team stood on score one hundred and eighty-seven, and Foley's one hundred and eighty-six; only a difference of one duck, which shows that the sides were pretty evenly drawn. The umpire, Mr. H. T. Payne, killed forty-one, making a grand total of four hundred and fourteen. Ducks were not as plentiful at the Ballona as they were some weeks ago or the boys would have killed enough to supply Los Angeles for the next

SIX MONTHS.

A week from to-day the club will start out in another direction and look up a good quail country when they will divide up in the same way and make it lively for the little quail. This time the club will probably give a banquet at the expense of the loosing team, as quail bring a better price in the market than ducks. Several members of the club will go out to-day and return next Monday. The club is under full headway and was never more prosperous than at the present time. The membership is increasing rapidly and in a year or so there will not be a better

SPORTSMAN'S CLUB

In the State than the Los Angeles club. They have done much good since they organized, and although they have prosecuted but one or two cases they have been the means of keeping a great many hunters from killing game out of season. The clubs are doing a great deal of good all over the State and Los Angeles county can boast of being equal to any of the other counties in the State in this matter.

H. Slotterbeck has placed in his shooting gallery a life-sized target of Guiteau. It looks very much like the convicted man, and a number of persons have visited the gallery since it was put up day before yesterday. The score for the prizes offered by Mr. Slotterbeck for the best record stands:

Mellus, twenty-seven; Harris, twenty-seven; Northcraft, twenty-seven, and Brady twenty-seven. The score will probably be closed next week.

A GOOD JUDGE.

How a Country Judge Treats His Prisoners.

Every once in a while a country Justice of the Peace will make a bull. The country Justice, as a rule, knows more law than two-thirds of the lawyers in the United States, in his mind, and what he don't know about the codes he manufactures. A few days ago a prisoner was sent in town from one of the country places and is now in the county jail. The commitment after containing the usual recitals concludes something like this: "He is a bad Case and i sentinse him to too hundred days (200) at hard laber unless he pais too hundred ($200) dollars for a fine."

ONE BEER.

How Morris Lost his Money Drinking Beer.

The ten-dollar beer case was called in Judge Adams' Court yesterday morning and occupied the entire forenoon. Pete Morris, who had a beer jerker named Emedias Sanchez, who has a place in Sonora town, arrested for not returning a ten dollar piece when he gave it to her for a glass of beer, failed to make a case against her and she was discharged. The evidence went to show that Morris, after drinking the beer, sat down to a poker game and lost his money in that way. He has probably learned a lesson and will never do it again.

New Lodge of Good Templars.

Grand Lecturer Webb, in passing through our county to his home in Santa Barbara county, was detained to institute a lodge at Duarte with thirty charter members, including the best people of the place. In the work he was assisted by Will D. Gould, Esq., District Deputy, and others from El Monte Lodge. The officers are: H. S. Daniels, W. C. T.; Mary L. Taylor, W. R. H. S.; Maria Hargrave, W. L. H. S.; Viola Shrode, W. V. T.; Wm. S. Young, W. Sec.; Lee Shrode, W. A. S.; J. O. Matthewson, W. F. S.; D. S. Shrode, W. Treas.; Chas. Taylor, W. M.; Jennie Shrode, W. D. M.; Jane Sandefur, W. I. G.; W. L. Harris, W. O. G.; E. T. Hargrave, Chaplain; A. T. Taylor, Lodge Deputy.

A Wedding.

This is how the Tucson Citizen puts it: —Last evening there duly appeared before Judge Bragg, Manuel Barros and Juliano Lopez. They were armed with the necessary documents and being of lawful age and honest occupation, were at their united request made bone of one bone and flesh of one flesh. The hour was late and money scarce and what would lodge one would lodge two. So in charity to one another they were made one and they went on their way rejoicing.

The horticultural pavilion will soon be no more. A fitting epitaph to be placed on the site of the torn down building would be the following: "Sacred to the memory of an institution which Los Angeles deliberately permitted to die a natural death, after reaping therefrom an inestimable annual benefit for several years. Requiescat in pace." Yes, verily.

The new school house at El Monte was dedicated on Washington's birthday with appropriate ceremonies, among which were exercises by the pupils, music by the brass band and lively ringing of the bell.

A two-foot rule—Keep your feet dry.

SCRAPS BY THE WAY.

The Times' Wilmington Correspondent on the Wing.

BAKERSFIELD, February 23, 1882.

Yesterday afternoon found me at Tulare, which usually quiet little burg is most wonderfully quiet just now. The people have given up all hopes of rain for the present season, and have gone to boring artesian wells. They have determined that if water will not come from above to bring it up from below.

The first artesian water that has ever been found in Tulare county was struck on Messrs. Page and Morton's ranch about three months ago, at a depth of three hundred and thirty feet. Since that time several other wells have been sunk and an almost inexhaustible supply of water obtained. But here is the south bound express train and we must leave Tulare "instanter," and are whirled across the great level plains in the direction of Sumner.

These plains are a part of the vast sheep lands of this section of the State, and thousands and thousands of sheep may be seen in all directions. In consequence of the dry season feed is very short and stockmen are becoming alarmed; some are even shipping their stock out of the country. Forty car loads of sheep leave Tulare for Northwestern Texas today. "Sumner," says the brakesman; the train stops, we get off and take a bus for Bakersfield.

This place, nestled among and half hidden by its numerous cottonwood trees, does not present that dull and exceedingly quiet appearance that Tulare does. On the contrary business seems to be good, and while there is not a boom in any particular branch of trade, yet all seem to be steadily jogging along the road to prosperity. This town, or its name rather, has become almost proverbial as the home of the gambler and sportsmen. Horse-racing, foot-racing and dog fighting are the everyday amusements, and at night-time the gambling houses and dance halls are in full blast. Flags are still flying all over town in honor of Washington's Birthday.

This is one of the loviliest days that can well be imagined. One of those warm, sunny, sleepy days of which this Central California climate is so prolific. A happy blending of spring and Indian summer. Not a breeze is blowing and the glorious sunshine falls like a mantle of golden light upon all nature, and all nature stands still, as it were, to drink in the elysian draught, without so much as the hum of a bee or rustle of a leaf. The birds are too lazy or too sleepy to sing or chirp. The brute creation are wont on such a day as this to congregate in threes and fours and stand perfectly quiet, to bathe in the even, delightful, exquisite, life-giving light and heat of a semi-tropical sun. And even man is indifferent to bodily exercise and cares only to sit and lazily dream or wander listlessly along and enjoy the calm, blissful content engendered by this wonderful, glorious, indescribable climate. S.

NATURAL SCIENCE.

The Social at Good Templars Hall Last Night.

There was a large crowd at Good Templars Hall last night, it being the second social of the Natural Science Club of the High School. The literary and musical part of the programme was most excellently carried out. The young ladies sing and recite well.

On opening the exercises the President of the society said: "I take pleasure in welcoming you to this our second social. It is always pleasant to meet the parents and friends of our schoolmates, and especially so when we meet them under the present circumstances. We have arranged a short programme from such material as was at hand. There has been no special preparation made, as our teachers thought best not to devote our school time to such purposes. We have therefore taken work which has already been performed at school."

The programme was: An instrumental solo, the "Polish Boy," Miss E. Thornton; song, "The Waiting Maid," Miss C Ernst; essay, "Silent Influences," Miss Minnie Baxter; instrumental solo, "Good Night My Darling Child," Miss E. Fleishman; declamation, "Picnic Sam," Miss B. Bell; song, "The Three Fishers," Miss Mary Barnley; declamation, Miss McLain; instrumental duet, "Grand Duchess," Misses Meyer and O'Melveney; and a song by Miss T. Heinsch.

The entire programme was a credit to the school and shows that the teachers have taken great pains with the scholars.

SWEET SINGERS.

The Grand Concert at the University Last Night.

Last evening the grand concert at the University took place. The lecture room was well filled with ladies and gentlemen from town. The following excellent musical programme was carried out by the best talent in town:

A chorus by twelve male and female voices; a guitar solo by Professor Dorego; vocal solo, Miss Nellie Carter; a chorus; solo, Professor Fisk, who was heartily encored; Laughing song, S. H. Roberts. He was encored twice; duett, Madame Marra and Mr. Abernethy. They sang well and were encored twice; piano solo, Professor Zellner, of Chicago. He is a good performer, and was well received. Vocal solo, Miss Ferner.

Mr. Bovard, the President of the University, then made a few remarks, and on behalf of the scholars presented to Mr. Larkin, one of the students, several handsome presents, on account of his leaving school.

The whole affair was very enjoyable, and everybody left feeling well pleased with the entertainment.

Many Thanks.

It wasn't from taking too much of the—ahem! ice water—sent in from the Woodworth-Fox marriage reception, though it may have been caused by too hearty an indulgence in the sweetmeats; but the fact is we forgot to mention the generous and excellent collation with which the TIMES was favored on Thursday evening. It was nevertheless appreciated to the fullest extent, and if any one doubts it let them try running a daily newspaper for three months on wind and then have their true inwardness surprised with such a royal lay-out as was that, and they will have some appreciation of the situation. The "devil" says he wishes Joe would get married every day.

San Diego river is having a veritable boom. It is now in order to hear of heavy floods in the city of bay and climate.

A CIGAR MAN.

How He Swindled Some of the Old Smokers.

He Combines Pleasure and Romance with Business and Gets Away with a Young Girl's Affections.

Old tobacco smokers say the weed has a most soothing effect upon their nervous system. It is probably so, but several of the old fellows have been looking green under their left eyes for the past week. They are mad, and sweat vengeance upon the head of one Frank Montano. He was in this city a week ago and left

VERY SUDDENLY

For parts unknown. He came here, it was supposed, from Lower California, and had in his possession several hundred boxes of first-class "three-for-a-half" Mexican smuggled cigars. This was the story he told all the gull cigar smokers in town who wanted to buy cheap cigars, and their name is legion, for Los Angeles is not behind other cities when the fool element is placed on dress parade. They purchased his "three-for-a-half" cigars, and felt happy until the first layer had been smoked up, when there was trouble in camp. They found out that every cigar after the first layer was made of

CABBAGE LEAVES,

With one wrapper of poor tobacco on the outside. They had been sold in the most approved style. They said nothing to Montano, for he skipped out of town before the cabbage-leaf cigar was reached. But now comes the romantic part of Mr. Montano's sojourn among the Angels. He met a loving and

BEAUTIFUL YOUNG LADY

Of this city and fell desperately in love with her, or pretended that he did. He is a handsome fellow, has seen much of the world and soon succeeded in gaining the poor girl's affections. She consented to elope with him and be married secretly. He gave for his reason the old, worn-out story that his parents wanted him to marry some one else, and would disinherit him if they heard of his marriage to any one else. They went to one of the principal hotels, where the poor girl expected to find a priest to unite them in the holy bonds, but alas! for

CONFIDING WOMAN.

As soon as the scoundrel got her in the room he locked the door and kept her there in a fainting condition until the next day, when he skipped out for San Francisco, leaving a note saying that he had a wife in that city. The scoundrel has operated in San Jose and other cities, but his principal place of business is San Francisco. He will be brought back to this place if some cigar smoker who don't like cabbage leaves will step up and make a complaint.

Various Causes—

Advancing years, care, sickness, disappointment, and hereditary predisposition—all operate to turn the hair gray, and either of them inclines it to shed prematurely. AYER'S HAIR VIGOR will restore faded or gray, light or red hair to a rich brown or deep black, as may be desired. It softens and cleanses the scalp, giving it a healthy action. It removes and cures dandruff and humors. By its use falling hair is checked, and a new growth will be produced in all cases where the follicles are not destroyed or the glands decayed. Its effects are beautifully shown on brashy, weak, or sickly hair, on which a few applications will produce the gloss and freshness of youth. Harmless and sure in its results, it is incomparable as a dressing, and is especially valued for the soft lustre and richness of tone it imparts.

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR is colorless, contains neither oil nor dye; and will not soil or color white cambric; yet it lasts long on the hair, and keeps it fresh and vigorous, imparting an agreeable perfume.

FOR SALE,

A ONE HALF INTEREST IN THE

Horne & West

ELECTRO-MAGNETIC BELT.

THIS IS THE same belt which is now manufactured by W. J. Horne, and which he is extensively advertising as the W. J. HORNE BELT. This Belt was invented and patented by myself. Afterward I assigned one half interest in this Belt to W. J. Horne, which he now owns in common with me. This Belt has taken two premiums at State Fairs; but as I have invented another BELT, of double the power of the HORNE & WEST BELT, and much superior to it in every respect, and which I make and sell for ONE HALF the cost of the old Horne & West Belt, I will sell my one-half interest, in the Horne and West Belt cheap for cash.
